Advice on healthy diets

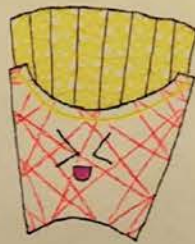

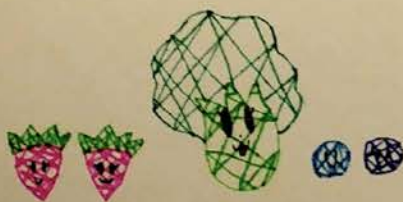

Some types of food are good for us and others are not.

Vegetables and fruits are good for us because they have lots of vitamins and minerals. They keep us healthy too. We need to eat 2 servings of fruit and 3 servings of vegetables daily.

Salty food is bad for us because it has too much salt. Too much salt is bad for us so we need to eat fewer potato chips. But we need a little salt to help our body work well.

Remember to eat healthy food. And sometimes we need to eat less junk food. Let's be healthy!

Shopping for food

Last Sunday afternoon, Mum went shopping with me because I would have a school picnic on Monday. We went to Melody Supermarket.

The supermarket was very big and there were a lot of snacks, sweets and drinks. Mum bought me two packets of potato chips. I asked Mum to buy me a carton of blackcurrant juice. She said 'no', because blackcurrant juice was more expensive than mango juice. Mum bought two packets of dried mango for me. She bought some Fukuyamashi Japanese strawberries. I said, 'They are so delicious. I like them!'

We bought all the food and I put it in my backpack. Not long after, we went back home.

A picnic

Yesterday was a sunny day. The Wong family decided to have a picnic in Sai Kung. Mrs Wong said, 'I have just made some sandwiches. Let me put them into the backpack.' May said, 'I have already fed the cat.' Lily said, 'I haven't finished packing yet.' Mr Wong said, 'I have just checked the weather. It will be sunny.' After one hour, they finished all sorts of preparation. They brought a picnic basket, some orange juice, a kite, a backpack and swimsuits for their picnic.

The Wong family were ready to leave. They felt very excited. However, they didn't notice that the sandwiches were under the newspaper on the coffee table. Mrs Wong forgot to put them in the backpack. The cat jumped into Lily's backpack quietly.

When they arrived, Mrs Wong realized that the basket was empty! She asked, 'Where are the sandwiches?' Suddenly, the clouds became black and it started thundering. The weather turned bad. Their cat heard the thunder and jumped out of the backpack. Lily asked, 'Why is the cat here?' They thought the cat ate all the sandwiches. It rained heavily so they ran to the shopping centre. They felt sad.

The Wong family couldn't have a picnic anywhere. Mr Wong suggested, 'Let's go shopping instead!' Everybody agreed so they went to the shopping centre. Finally, they went to Yum Yum Restaurant to have dinner. They felt happy in the end.

In the evening, they got lost and didn't know what to do. They were afraid and nervous. Luckily, they met a man. They asked the man, 'How far is it from here to the bus stop?' The man said, 'It is not far. It is one kilometre.' They then asked the man, 'How long does it take to walk from here to the bus stop?' The man said it took more than one hour. After a while, the police came. The robber ran away all at once. The police chased after him. Finally the police caught the robber and took him to the police station. The salesgirl said, 'Thank you!' I said, 'You are welcome.'

Sam and Ken learn a lesson

Sam and Ken were late for school last Friday. Why?

On Thursday, they were reading comics together. Ken said, 'Sam, should we go to sleep now? It is already midnight.' 'No, we still have so much time, don't worry Ken.' Sam replied.

The next day, they woke up in a hurry so they didn't eat breakfast. Ken blamed on Sam because he told him not to worry.

They used to walk to school but there was no time. Suddenly, they saw a taxi. It takes only 10 minutes to travel from their home to school. So they got into the taxi and they thought they wouldn't be late.

However, they were so unlucky. There was a car accident in front of their taxi. They had to wait until the policemen arrived but it was too late. It was already eight o'clock.

At the end, they arrived school at a quarter past nine and the teacher needed them to stay at school until five o'clock. They learned a lesson which is not sleeping late when you have school the next day.

My Favourite Public Transport

There are different kinds of public transport. They are bus, taxi, minibus, MTR, tram and ferry.

People take public transport because it is convenient, cheap and fast. My favourite public transport is the MTR.

There are two reasons why I like travelling by MTR. First, it's fast. When I need to go to a place really far, I can be there in a short time when I take the MTR. Second, it's cheap. Normally, when you take a taxi, it's quite expensive. But I only need to pay 5 dollars if I take the MTR.

Since the MTR is fast and cheap, it's my favourite public transport.

An Accident

rainy

What a bad day! I was practising ice-skating in a rink when a man hit me.

In the morning, my sister and I went ice-skating by minibus. My sister said, 'Let's go to the ice-skating rink to go ice-skating.' I said, 'Ok! Let's go!'

In the ice-skating rink, we practised spinning successfully. Suddenly, a man fell over and crashed into me. I fell down and broke my arm and leg. I was very scared so I kept on crying. My sister and a beautiful lady called 999 and comforted me. I was sitting in the clinic when the ambulance arrived. In the hospital, the doctor told me that I broke my arm and leg. I had to stay in hospital for one week.

Today was a very bad day for me.

An accident

Last Sunday morning, Tim decided to watch a film with his friends.

On his way to the cinema, he saw a hawker selling some fishballs. He went to the hawker and asked, 'How much are the fishballs?' The hawker replied, 'It's only six dollars! Very cheap!' 'Ok! I'll buy one.' Tim said. Tim thought, 'Umm.....I want to go see my friends quickly and I don't want to cross the road.'

Then, Tim jumped over the rail and shouted, 'I'm a superman!' All of a sudden, the hawker and Tim's friends shouted, 'Watch out for that taxi!' But it was too late. The taxi couldn't stop and hit Tim. After that, the passengers ran out of the taxi and called for an ambulance. On the way to the hospital, Tim felt very painful because of his broken leg.

Finally, Tim ended up in the hospital. The doctor suggested, 'You should follow the road safety rules. You need to stay in the hospital for three weeks!' Tim was very happy because he didn't need to go to school for 3 weeks, but he was sad that his leg was broken. His mum and dad were sad and worried too.

After this accident, Tim learnt not to jump over the rail again. He should use the zebra crossing and wait for the traffic lights.

Diary of a School Trip to Yunan

3rd July - 5th July 2017

I went on a school trip to visit the poor people in Yunan.

On the first day, I visited a family, the Wongs. They were living in a small hut. It was only a size of a double bed! There was only one small bed so I needed to sleep with the children. They didn't have fans so I felt very hot. I couldn't sleep well.

On the second day, I went to a faraway river to pick water for a shower. The bucket was as heavy as a fat pig! At night, I used the cold water to wash my body. After shower, I ate my dinner! It was congee! I was not full. I missed my home!

On the last day, I went to a village school. They didn't have enough money so they needed to share books with one another. There were no air conditioners. It was hot in summer and cold in winter.

I am lucky because I have a good environment for me to study and live. I must count my blessings.

My Best Friend

By 6B Michael Yeung

I have a good friend. He is Keith. He is diligent and generous. He always studies hard and does his homework everyday. He does some supplementary English exercises too. He is generous. He always shares food with his classmates.

Keith and I met each other many years ago. When I was in P.1, I was a new student and I had no friends. When I was lonely, he became my friend. Although we studied in different classes after P.1, we were still good friends. Keith is a friendly boy. He waits for me after school everyday, and we go home together. We always go play basketball at weekends.

If you ask me who my best friend is, I will say Keith is my best friend. Our friendship will last longer than five years. It will last forever.

A Green Dream
By 6B Wong Tsz Ngo

Tom used to be a wasteful person. He wasted lots of things in his daily life. He always left the lights on when he left home. He always had baths. He used lots of water.

Yesterday morning, when Tom was going out to play football with his friends, he saw a notice in the hall of his building. It was a notice about emergency water shut off in his building from 9:00am to 3:00am.

In the afternoon, he came home from the park. He was so hot and dirty. He rushed into the bathroom to have a bath. When he wanted to have a bath, he found no water coming out from the tap. He forgot the notice about the emergency water shut off.

There was no water supply. He was unhappy and uncomfortable. He remembered the notice. He stopped having the bath and was blaming about having no water. He was shouting for his mother for help.

Suddenly, the alarm clock rang loudly. His mother shouted at him. He found that it was only a dream. He learnt from the dream that he should not waste water. He should stop having baths. He should have showers. From then on, he had not been wasting water.

Book Report

Title: The African Safari Discovery

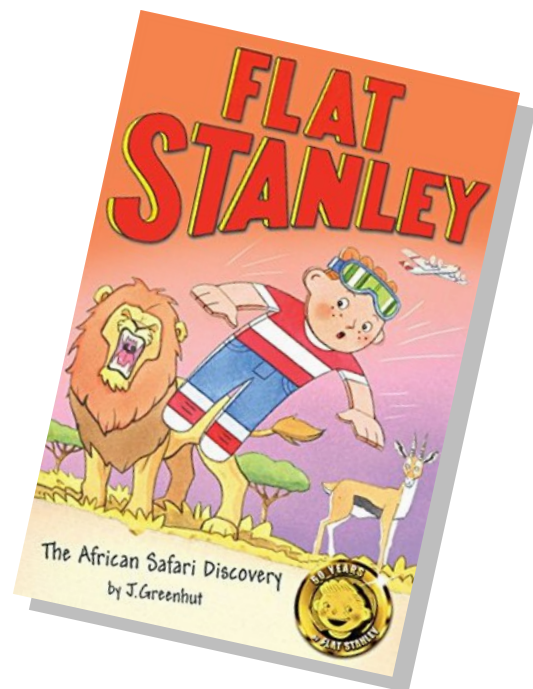

Author: Josh Greenhut

The book is about a curious boy named Stanley Lambchop. He planned to travel to Africa with his brother and father. He wanted to study the skull that was discovered in Africa. However, he couldn't find the flat skull but he encountered something which was more adventurous. He saw lions, zebras and elephants in a safari. They were chasing the Lambchop family. It was a special experience for him.

I thought the plot was exciting because of the adventure in the safari. In the story, it was full of ups and downs, including the Lambchop family being chased by the animals. My favourite character was Stanley Lambchop. I think he was brave because he went to Africa to look for a flat skull but he faced some difficulties. However, he did not give up. I have learnt that I should be brave when I face difficulties.

Count Our Blessings

I went on a school trip to visit the poor people in Yunan. I stayed with a local family for three days. It was a wonderful but difficult trip.

On the first day, I visited a local family. They lived in a small house. It was very dark inside. I felt very hot because they did not have any fans or air-conditioners. Everyone slept in the same bedroom. I shared a bed with two other children so it was very crowded. I could not sleep well.

On the second day, I woke up at five because it was too hot and the roosters were very noisy. Then the family and I went to a well to get some water. We filled some buckets with water. When I was carrying the buckets, I felt that they were too heavy for me! I could hardly walk! The children there were much stronger than me. When we got to the house, I poured the cold water over myself. I missed my hot shower at home. For breakfast, we only had little congee so I was hungry most of the time.

On the last day, I visited the local school. The school was very different from Hong Kong. There were not enough chairs and tables. Some children had to sit on the floor and there were very few books too. Seven children shared one book! The teacher was very nice and friendly. At the end, I danced for them in the classroom. Everyone clapped!

After the trip, I have learned that I am so lucky studying in Hong Kong because the facilities here are better than in Yunan.

A Day I Will Never Forget

I will never forget the day when I went to the swimming pool near my home. I was very excited about going there for swimming. But when I was playing, I was almost drowned. Luckily I was saved. It was a scary but joyful experience.

The incident happened last Sunday. I went there with my close friend, Ken. We were playing together when my mum called me, 'Azan! Come here!' So I ran to her. But when I was running, I slipped and fell into the water. I was really scared and yelled, 'Help!' because I did not know how to swim. Luckily, Ken was by the pool. He shouted, 'Give me your hand!' I reached out my hand to him. He grabbed my hand at once. Then a man joined him and they helped me get out of the water. I was relieved when I was laying on the ground. I was exhausted. Mum thanked them.

In the end, I was very happy that I was saved by my close friend Ken. I will never forget what happened that day.

The Best Present I Had Ever Had

Last Sunday was my birthday. My mum bought me a birthday present and a birthday cake. The present was the best present I had ever had. I was so happy to get it. It was worth $5000.

The present was big. It was like a TV, but it was smaller than a TV. It had a button to turn it on. I could use it to do a lot of things. It was made of metal and plastic. It was all black. It was a computer.

The computer could do a lot of things. I could use it to chat with my friends. I could also use it to play online games. It made my life interesting. I would stay at home all day with my new computer. It was a good thing for me.

I was very excited to use my computer, but Mum told me not to use it all day because it would hurt my eyes.

This computer was the best present I had ever had.
